

Middle-And-Long Distance Running

For many years now, the University of Cyprus' middle-and-long distance running teams have been building an excellent tradition of winning national singles and team Championships nearly every season. The University of Cyprus, through its Agenda, offers the chance to students and personnel to improve and maintain their physical condition.

Men's and women's internal Championships are held at the University of Cyprus' spinney.

