

Beach Soccer

More and more people all over the world follow Beach Soccer nowadays. The University of Cyprus ensures that the conditions are ideal for a round-the-year promotion of the sport at its top-notch facilities at the University Campus.

Teams from the entire University of Cyprus community may take part in the Championships.

A complete record of the participating teams will be announced after the end of applications.

Games will be judged by Cyprus Football Federation (CFF) referees.

The championship-winning team will be awarded a winners' Cup while all footballers of the top three teams will receive medals.
