

PhD Scholarships

Investing in your future

As part of our commitment to Research and Innovation, the University is offering up to 60 PhD studentships across the University's extensive research portfolio. This investment celebrates both our interdisciplinary themes and our internationally renowned areas of research excellence.

Applications are invited from high calibre candidates with first-class or 2:1 honours wishing to pursue PhD research under the supervision of leading researchers.

Up to 40 UK/EU PhD scholarships and 20 international PhD fees bursaries are available.

Studentships will start in September 2013.

Closing date for applications: 11th January 2013.
