Business Russian
Level A1 – 120 hours

The A1 level of Business Russian corresponds to the first level of Russian, based on the Common European Framework of Foreign Languages. The material is taught in 120 hours.

The course emphasizes the practical and day-to-day use of the target language in relation to everyday life in the business world. Using a communicative methodology, upon successful completion of the course, participants will be well on their way to functioning at the A2 (Waystage) level of the Common European Framework for language learning.

The first part of A1 incorporates general information on how to introduce yourself, greetings, themes directly related to getting to know your clients and allowing your clients to get to know you. Participants acquire the necessary language skills to take part in small talk concerning daily and business life. Learning how to order in a restaurant, the names of various foods and drinks is a must, as well as booking a hotel or catching a flight, while of course shopping information is on our agenda as well.

The participants will learn how to read in the Russian language, to make appointments and arrange/schedule meetings, as well as deal with bank transactions such as opening an individual or a corporate current account.

Who should attend? Our course is tailor made to meet the needs of professionals active in the world of business. This course is suitable for people working in Banks, Auditing Offices, Law Offices, Accountants and in general people that deal with Russian speakers in their professional world.

Tutors: All instructors in the Adult Education program have Masters level qualifications in Russian and specialist training in the teaching of Russian as a second/foreign language.
