Each tenant signs an Accommodation Agreement with the University of Cyprus, in which it is clearly mentioned that he/she must abide by the Accommodation Rules at the Students Halls, which are subject to change without any prior notification.

The Accommodation Rules are applied for all the tenants and for their quests/visitors.

In case a student who has been chosen does not sign the Agreement within the determined deadline, and he has not informed the housing office about problems that probably occurred, then it will be assumed that he is not interested any more, thus the room will be rented to another candidate without any warning.

The University of Cyprus authorizes the Housing Office to extend or to cease before time the Accommodation Agreement when:

2.1. The tenant has the right to extend his accommodation to his room after the expiration date of the Agreement during summer time, if he informs the Housing Office at least one month before the expiration date of the Agreement, and having his Departmental affirmation that during summer holidays he is obliged to attend some courses and/or lab exercises.
