

Graduate students visit the OC-UCY Laboratory October 2018

On October 11th, 2018, a presentation for the graduate students, held in Oceanography Center Laboratory, where the visitors had the opportunity to learn about Oceanography, the perspectives and the research methods of the Center. In particular, Mr. Andreas Nikolaides presented and discussed the SEA4all, and the Marine Spatial Planning II (MSP2) projects and Dr. Georgios Georgiou talked about the MENTOR project. The student visits have been arranged in the frame of the Postgraduate Studies Fair 2018 organized by the Careers Office of the University of Cyprus.

